PERSONAL GOSSIP.

MISCELLANEOUS NEWS NOTES FROM RICHMOND AND ELSEWHERE.

Social Gatherings Past and to Come-Ladies Visiting the City-Germans and Euchre Parties, &c., &c.

This is the first Sunday in Lent. Wednesday is St. Patrick's day. Miss Rosalie Winston has returned from Old Point. Dr. Coleman, of east Grace street, is still seriously ill.

John H. Wright, of Suffolk, was it the city last week. Mr. Lewis H. Blair is in Florida and several days.

will remain several days.

Miss Maggie Kelly, of Fredericks burg, is visiting the city. Mr. John D. Walker, of Baltimore, is at the Exchange Hotel. United-States-District-Attorney Cat-lett Gibson is in Norfolk.

Mr. E. P. Edwards, of Boston, Mass. was in the city last week.

Captain John H. Wright, of Suffolk, was in the city yesterday. General Charles J. Anderson, Richmond, is in New York. Mr. Fred. W. Scott is in Florida, and will be absent several days. Mr. Otway S. Allen took his first degree in Masonry Friday might.

W. G. Harvey, Jr., has returned to the city after a pleasant trip South. Miss Sue Neal is in Danville visiting her brother, Captain James M. Neal. Miss Sue Saunders, of Buckingham county, is visiting Mrs. Stephen Putney. Mr. John W. Starke, who has been ill for some time, is up and doing well. Rev. Dr. A. S. Bettelheim, of San Francisco, is stopping at 400 east Clay

Miss Lizzie Lyons, of Ashland, Va. is visiting Mrs. Mayo, of east Main

Mrs. Battelle and the Misses Battelle, of New York, are at the Valentine House. William Ellyson, Esq., who visited Danville on Tuesday, has returned to the city. Miss Ryan is visiting Misses Hattie and Fannie Ross at No. 701 east Franklin street.

Miss Nannie Gwatkin, who is visiting relatives in Norfolk, is expected home very soon.

Rev. A. R. Holderby, of the Fourth Presbyterian church, will preach in Ashland to-day.

Miss C. Imogen Blackman, of Chester, Va., is stopping at Rev. William Hatcher's house. Miss Lucie Shepperd, of Glen Allen, for the new Union depot, is in the city. is the guest of Miss Sallie L. Grady, and is about to commence active opera west Clay street. tions. Miss Connie Spotts, who has been spending some time in Florida, is expected home soon. the guests of Major Boykin, Franklin Judge Robert W. Hughes left for street. Norfolk Saturday for the purpose of holding court there. Miss Lelia Flippo, of Caroline, is Station church will unite with the church visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilson, 812 to-day.

east Marshall street. It is proposed to locate the new fire company somewhere in the neighbor-hood of Shockoe Slip. Miss Evelyn Page, of Clarke county, visiting her friend, Miss Florence, 1104 east Broad street. Miss Lucy Price, of Mecham's River, who has been visiting friends in the city, has returned home. I. Kaufmann, of Kaufmann & Co., will leave this evening for lay in their spring stock.

Miss Gertie Harwood, of this city, has returned from Norfolk, where she has been visiting friends.

Miss Bessie Pearl Adams, of Norfolk. Va., is visiting her cousin, Miss

G. M. Berry, of this city. Miss Jennie Royall, of Lynchburg.

who has been visiting Mrs. Putney, returned home last Thursday. The Richmond Blues' Association will meet next Thursday night for the purpose of electing a lieutenant. Mrs. G. Powell Hill, of west Grace street, who has been visiting her parents in Alexandria, has returned. Mr. Deacon, of the Cincinnati Sun, was in the city last week, and visited the different quarries around the city. Mrs. H. W. Fuller, who has been visiting friends in Washington city for several days past, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Johnston, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting their son. Mr. A. A. Johnston, of Church Hill. Seven thousand dollars was collected in the internal revenue office Saturday.

gaged in the liquor traffic. Collections for the week about $35,000. who was the guest of Miss Constance Tinsley, 1100 Clay street, has left for Miss Sallie Manson, of Lynchburg, who has been visiting here, left for Farmville yesterday en route for home.

Miss Page Aylett, who has been visiting Mrs. Bradley T. Johnson, of Balitmere, returned to the city Thurs-

Miss Price, of Albemarle, who has been visiting Miss Powers and Miss Langhorne, left for home on Tuesday

Miss Nannie Forbes, of Fredericks burg, who has been spending the win-ter in this city, left for her home yes-

Miss Virginia Mason, who has been the guest of Governor and Mrs. Lee for several weeks, returned to her home The stone quarries are all at work. but not employing full forces. The in-

Mrs. John S. Mercer, of Williams

Miss Blackman, of Maine, and Miss

ean hotel on his property, corner

Mrs. D. T. Mitchell, of Lynchburg,

Va., who is a great favorite in Richmond, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Sutton, No. 800 east Leigh street.

Miss Sewell, of one of the lower

No. 608 west Grace street.

of Eighth and Broad streets.

Tuesday last.

several candidates.

of several very complimentary enter-tainments. She is expected home soon. dications are that business will be good in the spring. Miss Josephine White, east Franklin Miss Mary R. Thornton, of Halifax street, who has been travelling in the South for several weeks past, is now in county, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Samuel D. Davies, 301 west Grace street, has returned home. New Orleans. The Misses Bruce, of Halifax county, The Howitzer boys have commenced he have been spending the winter at talking of their summer encampment the Valentine House, returned home on for this year. They hope to go into camp somewhere on the sea-shore about Jewellers say there are more dia- July. monds now worn and more imperfect

The Virginia farmers should feel very stones on the market for sale than ever hopeful. Owing to the hard winters of the West numbers of farmers from out Richmond Commandery, No. 2, had there are in this city looking after a called meeting last night to confer the Red-Cross and Temple degrees upon The Virginia Medical College will have its commencement exercises at the Richmond Theatre March 30th, Dr. burg, who has been visiting Mrs. Bid-good, 15 west Cary street, returned home last Thursday. W. W. Landrum will deliver the final address.

Misses Fuller and Thomas, who have been the delightful guests of Mrs. Wirt Crippen, of Pennsylvania, are the guests of Mrs. Dr. William E. Hatcher, E. Taylor, have returned to their home in Pennsylvania. Dr. H. E. Smith, of Bath county,

Mr. John Murphy is perfecting his plans to erect at once a first-class European hotel on his property corpor who represented Amherst county in the Legislature of 1860-'61, was in the city last week.

Hon. James N. Stubbs and Dr. John Pollard will address a meeting in the interest of prohibition at West Point fine Sewell, of one of the lower not last week get up, or let their frierds tives, urging the passage of the Senate get up, a petition for a local-option bill to increase the salary of United east Grace, returned home on Monday

Mrs. Will Brown, of Brooklyn (nee

Miss Eva de Treville, who has bee

Mr. S. A. Tanner will leave this week for Philadelphia with a fine strain

Mr. R. A. Gresham, of Baltimore

formerly of Richmond, was in the city

Mr. Wellington Goddin has reco-

Delegates returning from the Baptist

Miss Terrell, of Lynchburg, is stopping with the Misses Reins, on Twelfth and Marshall streets.

The City School Board is very anxious to have the appropriation made for

Miss Morris, of New York, who has been visiting Miss Fairfax, of 204 east

Mr. John A. Augustine, of Messrs.

There will be an important meeting of the Richmond Home for Ladies on

Mr. John A. Hutchinson, who has

Rev. L. A. Cutler, pastor of Mar-holding a religious meeting in Indiana.

Mr. II. Schwarzchild has three electric lights inside and two in front of his store, on Fourteenth and Main streets.

iam county, is in the city, at the resi-

Sir Alexander Suart and son, of

A number of persons who have re-

Mr. Jackson Bolton, assistant city engineer, who has been ill for several Lynchburg, who have been visiting relations in the city, will return home

Miss Fanny Wellford left yesterday

on a visit to her friend, Mrs. S. Scollay

Moore (nee Isaacs), at Herndon, Fairfax

The monthly meeting of the Methodist Sunday-School Society will be held at Laurel-Street church this afternoon

Mrs. William H. Parrish will leave for Philadelphia Monday, where she will visit friends several weeks before

Mr. Alfred J. Gary, who has been confined to his room for two months, is improving slowly, and is able to get

Professor Edmund Harrison, who has

Miss Gertie Christian, daughter of Judge Christian, has returned to the city after quite a lengthy visit to New

A movement is on foot to organize an

Miss Mary Dickerson, of Farmville,

Miss Fannie Shepherd, of Blacks-

Sinton, 2600 east Broad street, will re-

Miss Fannie Hicks, the gifted soprano singer, of this city, has received an invitation to sing before the American School of Opera of New York city.

in Albemarle county last Wednesday

Miss Otey Cullen is still in Baltimore, where she has been the recipient main in the city some days longer.

Fredericksburg to visit friends.

prohibition. It will not include any en-been quite sick for several weeks, is rapidly improving and expects to be out danger.

Tuesday.

to the city.

county, Va.

at 3% o'clock.

returning home.

about on crutches.

again in a few days.

dence of her uncle, Colonel R. L. Maubilious-fever, is convalescing rapidly.

Main street, has returned home.

from a business trip to Norfolk.

return to that city in a few days.

the fourth Tuesday in this month.

shall-Street Christian church,

ouilding new school-houses.

Naples.

the city.

yesterday.

looking well.

visiting friends.

turned to the city.

dore Ellyson, Esq.

s highly spoken of.

most delightful time.

Mrs. A. J. Guerpillon is very The principals and teachers of the public schools will be paid off on Tuesher residence, No. 1401 east street. Annie Moore is visiting her election.

The uncertainty is killing cousin, Mrs. Thomas L. Moore, of Ma-ryland. Westwood), formerly of this city, is in Mr. A. F. Robertson, of Charlotte county, spent several days in the city visiting in Baltimore, has returned to last week.

Mrs. E. E. Eldridge, of Alexandria is at Ford's Hotel, visiting her father, Mr. J. P. Swords. Mrs. Willie Allen, who is visiting friends in Baltimore, will return to the city in a few days. Miss Powell, of Goochland, who has Mr. Walter E. Addison is in Danville been visiting her friend, Miss Carter, on legal business, and will remain for returned home last week. Miss J. D. B. Thompson, of this city, and her cousin, Miss Ella M. Ayres, of vered from his recent sickness, and is Boston, are visiting friends in Peters-

Mrs. W. T. Sizer, of No. 20 east Miss Edith Carleton, daughter of the Marshall street, is in Savannah, Ga., Hon. E. C. Carleton, of Michigan, is visiting Mrs. L. L. Lewis, west Franklin Miss Nannie Winston, who has been street. visiting friends in Petersburg, has re-Mr. John Mallory paid a visit to the University of Virginia last week to meet with some of his old college Mr. Edward L. Hotchkiss, of Staunton, is in the city, the guest of H. Thee-chums. Miss Carrie Waymack, of Prince The sermon of Rev. Mr. Burton at George county, is in the city, stopping with her friend, Miss Annie Lufsey, on St. John's church last Thursday evening Fourth street.

Mrs. T. M. Hundley has returned to Congress in Danville say they had a her home, 804 east Leigh street, after a pleasant visit to her friends in King and Queen county.

Messrs. Lancaster & Lucke, brokers have rented the Main-street store for merly occupied by Messrs. H. T. Cardozo & Co., hatters.

Mr. George J. Seabury, druggist Philadelphia, has given, through Colonel Purcell, a full supply of medicines to the dispensary at the Soldiers' Home.

Miss Lena Ferrell, of Banville, who Augustine & Harwood, has returned has been spending the winter with her cousin, Miss Pace, will return home next week. Miss Pace will accompany Miss Carrie Gamble, of St. Louis, who has been visiting friends here, will

The Misses Dandridge, of Carolin county, who have been the guests of J. Andrew Holmes, on north Eighth street, returned home last Tues-Several gentlemen boarding with recently been confined to his bed with

Mrs. L. A. Crenshaw gave a few of their lady friends a very pleasant dance last Tuesday night at 802 east Marshall Major Gideon Poindexter and Colonel J. M. Neal, of Danville, have recently been visiting the city. The latter the guest of Mrs. Thomas D. Neal, west

Miss Nannie Corbin, of Prince Wil-Main street. Miss Hannah T. Rumsey, of Halifax Courthouse, who has been on a visit to her friends in this city (Mrs. Tabor and Mr. D. S. Cubberly, the contractor Mrs. George W. Hawxhurst) has returned home. Mr. Voloski Vaden has tendered his resignation to the Governor as a member of the Board of Visitors of the Australia, were in the city last week, Fastern Lunatic Asylum, and it has been accepted.

Miss M. L. Clarke, one of the most attractive young ladies in Brooklyn (N. Y.) society circles, is in the city, cently professed conversion at Unionvisiting Mrs. John P. Hulst, No. 506 east Grace street. Mrs. J. Frank Ligon gave last Friday night to her friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jordan, of Texas, and Mrs. John days past, is now considered out of Ligon, of Memphis, Tenn., a progressive-euchre party. Mrs. R. C. Clarke and son, of The earnings of the Richmond and Danville system of railroads show an percase of about $70,000 for the month of February, 1886, over those of the Mr. Frank Chambers, originally of corresponding month last year. Richmond, but who for several years At the meeting of the Stock Board has resided in New York, has returned vote was taken, and it resulted in all members present voting "wet" except two, one of whom was uncertain. Messrs. Thaw & Ellett have leased the spacious lot, 220x150 feet, on Laurel and Broad streets, which will be im proved and used as their up-town coal-

Work commences at once. Rev. W. W. Landrum, D. D., supplies Rev. Dr. Goodwin's pulpit in Danville to-day, and Rev. John M. Pilcher and Rev. Dr. J. William Jones will supply Dr. Landrum's place here. Captain E. F. Clarke, of Bradford. One - Hundred - and - Ninety-ninth Pennsylvania Volunteers during the late war, visited the Soldiers' Home

Friday and donated it $20 in money. Rev. J. B. Cook, pastor of Bethlehem Baptist church, in Henrico county, has accepted a call to the Mechanicsville church, of Louisa county. He will take charge of his new church April 1st.

Dr. John A. Chilton, of Warrenton, Va., who has been in bad health for some time, is now in the city under the association of business-men opposed to treatment of Dr. McGuire. He is the guest of Mr. C. B. Ryan, 1113 Grove

The Finance Committee appropriated 3,500 to the repairs of the old Pump-House, which will probably do away with any unusual appropriation to the City Water-Works for the next eight burg, Va., the guest of Mrs. John C. or ten years. Mrs. J. H. H. Figgat, of Fincastle. Va., who has spent the winter at the Exchange and made many friends in nd, left Tuesday for Staunton. Richme where she will visit friends before returning to her home.

The Episcopal church at Dover was consecrated Thursday. Quite a large number of people were present. This church owes its foundation in a large degree to the generous exertions of Mrs. Josephine Stanard. While Mr. Myers and Miss Sallie Mayo were out driving last Thursday afternoon the horse became frightened in turning a corner and upset the cart. Neither of the two was hurt. The young lady received slight bruises. Night before last Colonel John B Purcell, on behalf of the committee presented a bandsome picture of General John R. Cooke, late commander, to Lee Camp, and it was appropriately hung on the walls of Veteran Hall.

The G. O. L. B. Club was reorganized last Thursday night and will meet on that night hereafter. The order starts with six members and expects to have large additions as the spring sends the fair ones off to seek new fields and victims.

Miss Glenn Atkinson and Miss Heler Rutherfoord, the former of whom has been staying at Mr. P. H. Mayo's and the latter at Colonel Archer Anderson's, will to-morrow go with Miss Anne Carter to pay a visit to Pampatike, Colonel Carter's place.

It is proposed to build three handsome public school-houses during the present year. One will be located at Marshall and Nineteenth streets, one on Main above Monroe Park, and the other on Sheep Hill. The three buildings will cost about $30,000 each.

Almost all of the members of the States district judges to $5,000 per au-

Dr. Thayer, of New York, arrived in the city yesterday, and is the guest of Mr. E. B. Kinney, 807 east Franklin street.

The Knights Templars are actively engaged by their committees in perfecting arrangements for their proposed to Providence, R. I., in June next. The Richmond Street-Railway Company have applied to the Council for a permit to extend their line from Ninth street to Leigh and up Leigh to Brook Mrs. M. B. Armistead, who has been visiting Mrs. W. J. Forbes, has returned to her home in Charlotte, N. C. She made many friends during her visit to Richmond. The examination of the title of the Samanni property has been prosecuted by five lawyers during the whole week.

and they are by no means at the end of their work. Rev. J. H. Newbill, of West Point. was in town last week making preparations for the prohibition campaign in that town. The election takes place

April 13th. Right Rev. Bishop Keane will begin his series of Lenten discourses to-night at the Cathedral on "The Parables of Christ." The services commence at half-past 7 o'clock.

The musicale of the Hahr Musical Society for next Tuesday has been postponed on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Hahr's sister, Mrs. Rogers, of Petersburg.

A prominent representative of the liquor interest was in West Point last week making arrangements for the first fight on prohibition, which takes place in that town next month. "A series of meetings will be held at Trinity Methodist church, commencing to-day and continuing all the week. Rev. J. C. Reed, pastor of the church. will be assisted by other ministers. Miss Louie Dickinson, who has been spending several weeks in Florida with friends, returned home yesterday morning. She speaks in glowing terms of her visit to the land of fruits and flowers. Most-Worshipful Peyton S. Coles, Grand Lecturer of Masons, returned to the city on Friday last after a very pleasant and satisfactory visit to the lodges in Gloucester and surrounding counties

The engagement of Mr. James Tate, of the "Baltimore United Oil Company," of this city, to Miss Connell, the only daughter of C. Connell, Esq., a rich paper-manufacturer of Michigan, has been announced in Detroit, Mich. A nephew of the late Captain Ham Chamberlayne, Mr. R. Heath Dabney, of New York, after obtaining his Ph. D. in Germany for historical stu-dies, has returned to this country, and Emma Laube, Pish-Ka; Miss Emma will give a course of lectures on the French Revolution at Washington and Lee University. Miss Ella Jones, of 116 east Leigh street, entertained a company of young folks last Thursday night, and a very enjoyable time was had. Among those present were Miss Annie Lufsey. Misses Maggie and Annie Hamlin, and Miss Carry Waymack, of Prince George county. It is said that Dr. Isaiah H. White will succeed Dr. P. H. C. Noble, assistant surgeon marine-hospital ser-

Urquart, of the marine-hospital service at Norfolk, has been temporarily assigned to this station. Last week there was a party of northern capitalists here trying to buy a site near Monroe Park on which to build a handsome hotel, to cost. it is said, about $350,000. The plan was frustrated on account of a citizen who re-was necessary to carry out the plans. There are seventeen charitable institutions in Richmond which are in part or wholly supported by the city. doubtful whether there is another city in the country which can make such a showing. They are not confined to any race or creed. Some of the other cities in the State should take a lesson from

The committee of Baptist ladies, of which Mrs. C. E. Buek is chairwoman. to arrange for the bazaar for the benefit of the Aged Women's Homes, held a meeting at Mrs. Starke's, No. 9 east Franklin street, Friday evening. A large number of donations were reported, and the ladies are much encouraged in their good work.

An ancient piece of silverware can be seen at Nowlan & Co.'s, jewellers-a solid silver alms-plate of English manufacture, weighing about sixty ounces and measuring twenty inches in diameter-a present to Brandon church by Sarah Braine considerably over one hundred years ago. From its great size it would appear that liberal contributions were made in those days.

Mr. John F. Gallagher, for the past two years assistant manager of Bradstreet's Richmond office, has returned from North Carolina, where he had been on business for his company. leaves this city to-morrow for the North. where he goes to get his instructions to take entire charge of an office in Georgia. Mr. J. H. Whitty continues as superintendent of the office here. T. Newton Hill, of this city, who is making a business-trip through the South for the house with which he is connected, spent several weeks in Florsual depression in business. charmed with the climate of Florida during the winter months. He reports that the damage to the orange groves is not as serious as at first supposed.

Mr. Virginius Dabney, formerly of this city, but now the proprietor of a flourishing school in New York, has a novel in the hands of Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, It is understood that the scene of his work is laid partly in Richmond and partly at the University, and that the time of the plot will embrace the whole period of the "late unpleasantness." A distinguished southern scholar who has seen the manuscript pronounces Mr. Dabney's work to be the best delineation of southern life that he has ever

Hon, R. R. Farr, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State, will vacate his office to-morrow and be suc ceeded by Dr. Buchanan.

Last week the clerks in Mr. Farr's office (George W. Hawkhurst, J. C. Porter, and James Jasper) pres im with the complete works of Sir Walter Scott, Washington Irving, Lord Lytton's Poems and Dramas, and the Cyclopædia of Practical Quotations as a testimonial of their regard as a citizen and officer.

Mr. Farr in fitting terms expressed his appreciation of the present.

The Finance Committee of the City Council at their first meeting last week to make up the annual budget appropriated only $1,000 to the mechan institute, but a committee of gentlemen who are interested in this great undertaking appeared before them at a subsequent meeting and so interested the members in the astonishing progress that has been made that they very cheerfully increased the amount very cheerfully increased the amount to $3,500, and would have voted more if the financial condition of the city would have justified it. An appropri ation for this institute by the State is expected at the next meeting of the Legislature.

A full-dress progressive-euchre party was given by Mrs. Allan Talbott, of No. 11 west Franklin street, Monday night, and was a very enjoyable affair. Mrs. Speaker Stuart carried off an elegant mother-of-pearl manicure-set as irst honor-Mr. Leslie Blair winning the gentleman's prize. Six tables

The following were some of the cosumes worn: Mrs. Speaker Stuart, ruby velvet, oink trimmings.
Miss Yeaton, white silk.

Miss Lena Watkins, blue cashmere; and tulle. Miss Atkinson, red cashmere with rich lace.

Miss Etta Munford, blue silk and Miss Hattie Williams, white satin, crystal front; diamond ornaments. Miss Lena Hardesty, white satin with Miss Hattie Gray, white cashmere; swan's-down with lace.

Miss Gay Miller, white satin, with Roman pearls and lace.
Miss Julia Radford, Nile-green satin, lace trimmings; pearl ornaments.

Miss Kate Harris, white satin and Mrs. W. H. Talbott, black beaded lace over pink satin.

with jet trimmings.

Mrs. Charles H. Talbott, black satin; nandsome lace drapery.

Mrs. Allan Talbott, black gros-grain ilk; diamond ornaments. Mrs. Alexander Archer, black satin

The following gentlemen were pro sent : Hon. B. B. Munford, Mr. J. W. Maury, Jr., Mr. T. N. Williams, Mr. John Lyons, Mr. T. H. Roberts, Mr. Leslie Blair, Mr. Berkley Ward, Mr. James Halsey, Mr. James Harris, Dr. Lewis Wheat, and Dr. Phil. Taylor.

PRIVATE MASK GERMAN. One of the most enjoyable events of the season was a private mask german given by some gentlemen to their lady friends at Wilkinson's Hall on Monday night last. All had a most delightful time, and enjoyed the dancing (which was kept up until quite late) and the refreshments, which were abundant and delicious. At 9 o'clock the grand march began, led by Mr. W. A. Mc-Donough, as Valentine, from Olivette. and Miss Mary Murphy, looking lovely, as Forget-Me-Not. The following is a list of the ladies and gentlemen present: Miss Annie Laube, as Yum-Yum-much admired; Werst, Violet; Miss Rosa Murphy, Lily of the Valley; Miss Anna Pleasants, Swiss Maid; Miss Lizzie Me-Donough, Pink Rosebud; Miss Annie McGraw, Court Lady; Miss Kate Mc Donough, Daisy; Miss Willie Dudley, Bluebell; Miss Doughty, Indian Princess; Miss G. Doughty, Snow-Storm; Miss Fena Smith, Dewdrop; Miss Mamie Points, Spanish Maiden Connie Wade, Gypsy; and the Misses Jenkins, Sailor Girls; Mr. D. O'Sullivan, Prince; Mr. G. Davis, Bandit King; Mr. J. Smith, Scotch Lad; Mr. Harvie Davis, Engvice, who has had charge of this station | lish Earl : Mr. F. C. Murphy, Sir Wal for the past two years. Dr. F. M. ter Raleigh; Mr. H. E. Tresnon, Count Arco: Mr. James Golden, Song and Dance : Mr. R. Worthington, English Gentleman; Messrs, Henry Payne, Joseph Laube, W. Robertson, H. F. Laube, and Hon. J. E. Taylor, of Man chester, American Gentlemen; Lee Hancock, Troubadour; and Mr. James Murphy, Cadet. Many others were in evening dress. Professor II. fused to sell a piece of ground which | F. Laube in his graceful style led the SHAKSPEARE CLUB. The first of last week a number of young gentlemen and young ladies met residence of Miss Callie, daughter of Mr. Josiah Ryland, on Marshall street, and organized a Shakspeare Club. The first meeting was held last Friday night at the residence of Mr. Richard Wortham. The rendition of " A Midsummer-Night's Dream " the cast-namely, Mr. Allen Potts, Quince; Mr. John Newton, Bottom : Mr. Ferguson, Snout; Mr. Wortham, Flute; Mr. Higginbotham, Snug; Mr. McGuire, Lysander; Mr. Gibson, Puck; Mr. Parish, Demetrius; Mr. Lewis, Oberon; Miss Ryland, Titania; Miss Walker, Helena; Miss Potts, Fairy-was a perfect success. Club meets next Friday week at the residence of Mr. Lewis Booker.

MISS TREE'S EUCHRE PARTY. Friday night a small progressiveeuchre party was given by Miss Nellie Tree to a few friends at her residence, 1003 east Clay street. A splendid supper was served late in the evening, and all present fully enjoyed themselves Those present were: Misses Julia Powers, Maggie May, Helen Gwathmey, Rosa Gotlief, and Miss Mills Messrs. Charles and Lewis Bosher, Parker Dashiell, Harris Donnan, C. C. Gentry, and Dr. Mills.

BETA THETA PI FRATERNITY. The Beta Theta Pi fraternity of Richmond College gave an elegant banquet at their chapter hall last Friday night. After some hours of social enjoyment one of Pizzini's best suppers was spread and was heartily partaken

Mr. E. B. Pollard, of Richmond, deida, visiting every city and town of importance in the State, and reports unders, which received warm applause. Several musical selections were ren dered by members of the chapter. The hall was graced by many of the lady friends of the society, among them Miss Ella Thomas, Miss Agnes Lyon. Miss Hockaday, Miss Marshall, Pollard, Miss Wortham, and Miss Wilson, chaperoned by Mrs. Professor II. H. Harris. Mr. W. W. Talley, Dr. James G. Field, Frank Lyon, and W. R. Thomas, alumni of the college, were among the visitors.

PHILOLOGIAN SOCIETY'S DEBATE Richmond College was the scene of much real enjoyment Friday night, the occasion being the public debate of the Philologian Literary Society. Despite the inclemency of the weather a large number of the friends of the students were present, including the young ladies from the Richmond

Female Institute, who added much to the brightness of the evening. As usual, the entertainment was perfect success, each participant showing himself to be thoroughly prepared for his task, and acquitting himself in a creditable manner. The address of welcome was delivered by the president, Mr. J. G. Paty, of Tennessee.

Mr. Campbell C. Cochran, of Pa-"Shamus O'Brien," as declaimed by latka, Fla., is in Charlottesville. Mr. C. A. Folk, of Tennessee, and ' Love at the Seaside," as read by Mr. Rev. A. B. Warwick and lady, of C. D. Roy, of Georgia, were well ren-dered and received hearty applause. Lancaster county, are here on a visit to relatives. The question for debate, "Resolved, That the intellect of woman is inferior Miss Ella Smithson has returned from an extended visit to friends in to that of man," was ably discussed-Baltimore and New York. affirmatively by Messrs. H. W. On Friday the class in medicine at liams, of Smyth county, and E. B the University presented Dr. W. B. Towles, the Professor of Anatomy, Hatcher, of Richmond, and negatively by Messrs. W. A. Borum, of Norfolk, and H. W. Jones, of Washington counwith a handsome gold-headed cane, Mr.

Lewis G. Woodson, of Richmond, ty. Each gentleman received the strict attention of the audience and frequent making the presentation speech. The compliment was unexpected to the Doctor, but he responded in an exceed-Frank Cunningham ingly neat speech, which the young doctors describe as "a fine curl." Captain warmly greeted upon the stage, and rendered in his usually fine style a selection from the opera "Robin Hood." Petersburg. In response to an encore he sang with Mrs. Heartwell Harrison, of Norfolk, pathetic sweetness "The Sword of is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Robert-Bunker Hill," completely captivating the audience.

DERSON'S.

Thursday night in honor of Mrs. Whit-

Adair Pleasants, Dr. and Mrs.

Bolling, and John Rutherfoord.

was not an exception to the rule.

Whitney was going to Florida.

of Prince Edward county.

no grand jury at this term.

night.

mer's work.

ing very popular.

on the James river, and from there Mrs.

Manchester.

ed friends in Petersburg last week.

schools here will close in five weeks.

The March term of the Hustings

Hon. B. D. Tillar, member of the Assistant-Bishop Randolph confirmed seventeen instead of twelve persons at

The brick-makers here, of whom the Meade-Memorial church Friday

House of Delegates from Greenville county, was in the city last week.

estate agents are doing very well.

Hall by the Musical and Dramatic Assa-ciation Tuesday night, the first one since chestra and good musical talent.

December. There will be a female or-

Rev. William H. Christian, of this city, has been appointed on the com-mittee to provide accommodations for the delegates to the General Methodist

Charles Fry ia colored boy about thirteen years old) was tried before Justices

regory and Howlett (colored), of Chesterfield, Friday on the charge of stealing a lot of wood. He was honorably

At the brick-yard recently opened between Fourteenth and Seventeenth and Hull and Bambridge streets the clay will only be dug down to the Hull-street level, leaving a number of nice building-lots in a pretty portion of the Jordan has the thanks of all our people for securing this much-desired

Rev. L. R. Thornhill, of the Bainbeen away on a business trip to Appo-

Baptist Congress at Danville, has returned, and will fill his usual appoint-held at the Central Methodist church at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at which Rev.

Mr. Epes will deliver an address, and the Christian, will preach to the young

Mary Banks (colored), charged with setting fire to Dr. Archer's residence.

and Clifford Godsey and Elijah Davis, two white youths, charged with steal-

At the meeting of the Council Friday night Mr. Bradley offered a resolution, which was adopted, requesting Mayor's Court in the interest of the city to prosecute all persons who are tried for placing obstructions in the

The question of opening a road in Chesterfield from Morrissett Brothers' to a point on the Broad-Rock road i again being agitated. Numerous petitions have been filed in the County

Court both for and against opening said road. Judge Clopton has appointed a board of "road-viewers" to look into

It is more than likely that the Council Committee on Light will contract with the Washington Automatic Light

Company for fifty street lamps. These lamps furnish an excellent light, and this number of them, to be lit every night in the year from dark until daylight, will cost only $1,368.75. The present street lamps, if allowed to burn

all night every night, would cost about the same amount each and would not furnish a light of more than half the Charlottesville.

visiting at Judge Cochran's.

the City Attorney to appear before th ing a horse, buggy, harness, &c.

mattox, and since then attending

Commencing to-morrow morning discharged.

change.

ments to-day.

people to-night.

street.

the matter.

strength.

A temperance s

Court begins to-morrow. There will be

Miss Ruth Branch, of this city, visit-

Major W. P. Ballard, of Richmond. A comic oration was delivered by formerly United States deputy mar-Mr. O. L. Martin, of Henry county, shal, was in the city on Saturday. which was much enjoyed. Several vocal selections were well rendered by a Mr. Bernard Mann and bride (nee quartette from the college-Mr. Kirk Miss Bessie Claiborne) have returned Matthews presiding at the piano. After from their wedding-trip to Florida. the exercises were over the Jeter-Me-Judge Rives, of Prince George, and morial Hall was thrown open for the Judge Yarrell, of Greensville county, lovers of curiosities and the promenade, were in the city on Saturday on private which lasted until a late hour.

ENTERTAINMENT AT COLONEL AN-Miss Florence Keys, of Maryland, is visiting our city, and is a guest in the An entertainment was given at Colofamily of Rev. George H. Ray, presiding nel Archer Anderson's residence elder of the district. Mr. John C. Armistead, clerk of the ney, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, courts in this city, has been spending who was visiting there, and Mrs. Bursome days in New Orleans, where he ton Harrison, who was stopping in the went to witness the Mardi-Gras carnival. Among those present were: Gov-Miss Sadie Habliston, of Richmond. ernor and Mrs. Lee, General and Mrs. s a guest at the residence of Mr. W. H. J. R. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Habliston, Sycamore street. She is T. Anderson, Captain and Mrs. Phil. always a welcome visitor to Peters-Haxall, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlop, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ellerson, Mrs.

Mr. Oscar Britton, a native of Peters-

James R. Branch, Mrs. A. S. Bu-ford, Major and Mrs. Dooley, Mrs. burg, but for some years past a resident of Baltimore, died recently in Dr. and Mrs. Cullen, Mr. and Mrs. Florida, whither he had gone for his Cameron, Major and Mrs. Boykin, Miss health. Ryan, of South Carolina; the Misses Miss Jennie Corse, daughter of Gen-Ross, Miss Anne Carter, Miss Helen eral Corse, of Alexandria, has been Rutherfoord, Messrs. Samuel H. Pul-spending some days in the city, the liam, Jo. Lane Stern, T. N. Carter, est of Mrs. Somerville, on Washing-Charles Winn, Wyndham and Blair Entertainments given by Colonel An-Mr. Robert Dunlop, for many year: a prominent tobacco-manufacturer of derson are always enjoyable, and this Louisville, Ky., has returned to his na-Mrs. Whitney and Mrs. Harrison left tive city. Petersburg, to engage in the the city Friday morning for Brandon, same business. Mrs. Powhatan Weisiger, of New York city, with her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Cooke, of Norfolk, have been for some days the guests of N. T. Patterson, Esq., on Union street. The present session of the public Rev. Dr. Gibson, of Grace church will devote his Lenten lectures to discussions of the Psalms, and his Lenten Miss Ada Morris, of this city, is visiting her relatives, the Misses Gill., collections to building up the wasteplaces in the Petersburg Convocation. Rev. George Somerville will remain > tirace (Episcopal) church, having accepted a call of the vestry. He has given great satisfaction during the past | Peachy, L. W. Lane, Jr., R. B. Cole, Mr. R. E. Richardson, secretary the Virginia State Insurance Company, who has been ill for some days in this city, was somewhat better Saturday.

and his friends have strong hopes of his

another year as assistant rector of there are a goodly number, have com-Major R. C. Taylor, of Norfolk, accompanied by his daughter and Miss Whitney, of Boston, have been spendmenced operations, ready for their sumog a few days at Shirley, the ho Two new street-cars will soon be put on the line between here and Rich-James-river home of Captain Ronond. This mode of travel is becom-Bert Carter. Mrs. Secretary Whitney and Mrs.

recovery.

There are quite a number of new Burton Harrison returned yesterday buildings now in process of erection from Lower Brandon via City Point. or soon to be erected here. The realintending to take the fast-mail train hence for Florida: but owing to a heavy for on James river missed the train. A meeting of the Liquor-Dealers' Rev. S. S. Lambeth, pastor of the Protective Association of this city will > ber of conversions and additions to the Some comment has been caused in the community by the unaccountable disappearance of Dr. M. L. Lincoln, a home-opathic physician, who occupied a fine rented residence on Union street.

or three weeks ago. There were a num-

Mr. J. C. Wool, proprietor of a large sash- and door-factory in this city, has made an assignment to W. R. Mckenney, Esq., trustee, for the benefit of his creditors. Liabilities are stated to be about $6,500 or $7,000, which will probably be covered by the assets. Most of the indebtedness is due to parties in Petersburg. Norfolk and Portsmouth. Miss Grace Hassell, of New York, is visiting friends in Norfolk.

the papers for the May election. are to have three mails a day. The The choir of the Moody and Sankey times of arrival and departure will be meeting will be composed of 30 9 A. M., 1:30 P. M., and 5 P. M. Mr. | voices.

Candidates are already appearing

Dr. M. Fitzgibbons, who has been some time ill, was on the streets vesterday. Lieutenant D. G. McRitchie, United bridge-Street Baptist church, who has States Navy (retired), of Maine, is visiting Norfolk.

Among the prisoners now confined in | Baltimore politician, is taking a week's

Miss Julia Oudesluys, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Inman H. Payne, Captain George Brown, it is thought, will remain in command of the navv yard until the fall. Dr. H. F. Butt, of Portsmouth, who pastor of that church, Rev. William H. has been several weeks severely ill, is | Charges moderate. now able to sit up.

Hon. Dan. Haggerty, the well-known the jail of this city awaiting trial are : | recreation in Norfolk. General W. P. Roberts, State Auditor of North Carolina, was in the city several days this week. Captain W. Scott Sykes, who was prostrated with a stroke of paralysis a ew weeks ago, is now able to be out. Mr. Samuel R. Borum, of this city. has gone to Minnesota to go into stock raising. He carried his family with

Mr. J. M. Bonnot, who has been on visit to France since October last for his health, returned home Thursday much improved. Chief-Engineer W. C. Wheeler, United States revenue marine, of Erie, N. Y. formerly of Portsmouth, is visiting Dr.

H. F. Butt, on Crawford street. Mrs. Maria Bain, of Portsmouth, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Willis Hargroves, who is quite sick at her home, near Driver's, Nansemond county. Miss Octavia Reed, daughter of Washington Reed, Esq., while dancing at the Casino hop, at the Ocean House, Thursday night, fell and broke her ankle.

Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, who was in various capacities in the employment of the city for the last forty years, died at his residence, on Fourth street, yesterday. The condition of State-Senator A. J.

Dalton was considered worse last night. He has been sick for ten days or more Miss Sue Morris, of Philadelphia, is with gastric troubles. No one is allowed to see him. The Red-Men tribes of Norfork and Portsmouth have this week all elected representatives to the Great Council of Virginia, which meets in this city on the 2d day of May next. Mr. A. T. Vannerson, of this city. has removed to Windsor, Isle of Wight county, to take charge of the telegraph office there and relieve Mr. Walton Holland, who goes to Danville. Mr. George M. Foreman, of Portsmouth, received his appointment yesterday as pay-clerk on the United States flagship Tennessee, and left this morning by the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad to join his ship at Key West.

Professor W. G. Jones, who has been absent from town for some weeks, has returned. Rev. T. N. Potts, of the Methodist Williamsburg.

Church, has returned from a visit to Prince Edward county.

Miss Lelia Jackson, Miss Alice

Smith, and Mr. Lee Henley are organ. izing an equestrian club. Miss Cecelia Powell, of Williams.

burg, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. S. Jones, at Newport's News. Mr. C. P. Armistead, who was on a visit last week to his sister, Mrs. V. P.

Holt, of Hampton, has returned. Miss M. Lucie Lane, of James City county, was here last week on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Spencer. Miss Lettie Gregory and Miss Lettie Warburton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Galt, in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. A. Brooks, Sr., has returned home after a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. Walter Stubbs, of Norfolk. Mr. Henry T. Armistead, who has been confined to his room by sickness for the past two months, is still quite weak. Miss Norma Lively, of Richmond. who was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bloxton, at their residence a short distance from town, has returned home, Rev. Charles P. Williamson, of Richmond, Ky., has been preaching at Olive Branch church, James City county to large congregations, and has added several members to the church. Colonel R. H. Armistead, of James City county, was in town a few days ago visiting his son, Robert T. Armi-stead, Esq. Colonel Armistead is in his eighty-second year, and successfully battled with a severe attack of illness iuring the past winter. Among the prominent arrivals during the week in attendance on the special term of the Circuit Court were Farthing, of James City county; J. F Hubbard, of Yorktown; W. W. Old, of Norfolk; Thomas Tabb, of Hampton; and Mr. Otho Keen, of Rich Captain James H. Townsend entertained a party of friends at his residence, on York river, last week with an old-fashioned Virginia oyster-roast, Among the young gentlemen present were Messrs, Sidney Smith, B. D. and E. H. Clowes.

It is a number of persons who be gold watches at $1 a week. Goddarf & Moses, 920 Main street, will explain

Second-hand Pianos and Organs can

There is No Reason why you should not wear a Gold Watch, when you can buy one on long time by joining Watch Club, 920 Main street.

If you want Sheet-Music, Musical

Merchandise, or a Musical Instrument of any description, the place to get i is at 903 Main street. be held over Davis's saloon, Fourth and Washington-Street Methodist Episcopal Hull streets, Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. | church, has concluded the revival meet-Three hours of solid fun in a Parlor A musicale will be given at Cersley's ings, which were inaugurated some two Match next Monday and Tuesday

> Wall Decorations, JOHN REGNAULT ELLYSON, No. 5 north Ninth street Proof Proof! Proof!!

nights, Richmond Theatre.

Conference, which meets in Richmond His house has now been closed for seve- any one sending us the names of one or more plane or organ customers. Moses & Co., Piano, Organ, an Music Dealers, 914 Main street

Five Chromo Cards mailed free to

If you want an Organ call at M. A Parlor Match-full of good music comical situations, funny sayings, ec-

One Dollar a Week

will buy a Gold Watch. It beats savings bank. Goddard & Moses, 920 Main street, have a club. Join at once

You will laugh and can't help it a Old Hoss in a Parlor Match. Watch Club-81 a Week.

Goddard & Moses, 920 Main street,

If you want a Piano it will pay go to call on or write to M. B. Ramos

Money to Lend on city real estate at 6 per cent

N. W. BOWE, No. 4 Eleventh street. J. McCorker as the Book Agent in a

BY the use of MEADE & BAKER'S SAPONINE DESTIFRICE, which will speedily remove in siplent tartar and sourf. Price, fifty cents a SMOKE TRIXY CIGARS. A FRAGRANT BEFATH IS SIWRYS A Pleasure and you can have it by using MEADE & BAKER'S delicious CARBOLIC MOUTH-

ATCITON SALES MONDAY.

PROFESSIONAL. WILLIAM E. CAMERON,

OFFICE: RUEGER BUILDINGS.
Leave letters or messages with R. I
Ward, Esq. mh 14-3m CARRIAGES, BUGGLES, &c.

Old Hoss, the tramp, in a Parlos Match-very, very funny.

> Wall Decorations. JOHN REGNAULT ELLYSON, No. 5 north Ninth street.

Parlor Match-very funny. It has more than realized my expects. tions." says Professor Dundan Campbell M. D. LL. D., president Royal College Physicians and Surgeons, member Genera valuable for debility, weak lungs, billou ness, dyspepsia, malaria, liver-complair sick-headach

SMOKE THIXY CIGARS, BEAUTIFULLY WHITE TRETH ENSURED

WASH. It destroys the offensive odor caused by diseased gums and decayed teeth, and es them to a healthy condi-

SMOKE TRIXY CIGARS.

FURMAN TUPPER, 4:30 P. M., two-story frame dwelling No. 105 west Baker street R. H. FOX & CO., 2 P. M., one car early reso potatoes. A CARD.—I TAKE PLEASURE IN

A giving notice to my friends and customers that on and after the 15th instant a can be found with Foregueran, Price & Co. 429 cast Broad and 266 north Fifth street. It is needless to say that I can now exhibit the most complete stock in the city at the most popular prices. It, S. GRAY.

ATTORNEY AT LAW

FOR SALE, A SECOND-OF THE

TOR SALE, A SECOND THAN THAN CANDY TOP PHAR TON, with side and back curtains, in good order; made by Ainsile & Son. Has been but little used since set of new steel lires were put on it. Call at 909 east flow street. mh 14-14